SOCIETY

ready for Santa and running into college boys and girls down town who are happy to be home have certainly made me aware that Christmas season is at hand and right now let me wish you all a merry Christmas although we are actually concerned about the turmoil this is a lovely reminder to the other half of the world.

we can well emulate the English and continue in pleasant paths as long as we can.

Aren't we proud of our boys and girls to school? Seeing Marion Lanier in a becoming frock of wine velvet made for the style with Irish lace collar and cuffs, and learning that she made the modest costume herself made me realize that she certainly must have had a hand in the making of it.

Friday morning when she wasn't expecting her until Saturday. Betty is looking grand and if you believe me until you get a flash of her in that red velvet. Betty was featured recently in the put out at Vandy. Alfred Merle Dorman came in Monday morning from Northwestern at Evanston, ILL. Alfred Merle is making her mark in that big University. She been invited to tell stories in the schools at Evanston, and only this week was invited to go to the Phi Omega Society Chapter in Chicago. Alfred Merle was especially attractive when we saw her in a new evening gown of tulle white with marigolds with sparkling sequins about the midriff. The Dorman entertained for Alfred Merle Monday evening with informal Open House and on Friday they are complimenting her with a brilliant dance. Annette Coakley was seen in a lovely gown blue net frock made with full skirt and bodice reminding one of a long ago Southern belle. Annette is a tall, young woman and is majoring in math. Hope to see and talk to many of our boys and girls so that I might tell you about them next week. The Joe and Julian Tillman homes are unusually attractive this Christmas. Doorways outlined with colored lights and windows gleaming with graduated candles, glimpses of Christmas trees in that background of pine help to make our nightly rides over our beautiful city a thrilling excursion, and speaking of doorways, there is none prettier than the one at the Lowell Mallard home. Here the door is gracefully festooned with evergreen, and lighted only in red. Lavinia Floyd's door has instead of the conventional wreath a sort of Christmas spray showered with holly. Her home is decorated in a blue and white scheme. And I am still remembering that lovely party given by Edna Brannen and Myrtle Davidson when we progressed from house to house. Both houses were beautifully decorated with the red and green motif, and I want a recipe for that delicious cranberry salad.

The elderly ladies at the Women's Club Party held in their honor were tickled pink over those carmine girls of powder and lotter. The merriment was as pretty as I ever saw it. It was banked with miniature Christmas trees, holly and pine.

What lovely high school girls are getting a white dress wool Evening wrap all silk lined and with a cunning hood, and a pair of angora mittens to keep her warm for that all night party the high school folks are having on the 28th? And what very fine young girl hosts she is getting a house for Christmas, or is it a party?

And did you see that lovely stained glass window at the Christmas Cantata Wednesday morning presented by Mrs. Leslie Johnson. The pupils of the seventh grade in Miss Junita New's room made it and we thought it was exquisite. The Cantata was held in the darkened grammar school auditorium and the pupils reflected credit on their director as the delightful harmony brookland the Christmas story.

The Girls Cotillion dance last Thursday night was a honey. It was one of the better dances. The music was good, and the girls initiated the boys to a new dance "Sweep the Floor." It was a new one, and the boys enjoyed it. And to top the dance off the members of the club presented each of their escorts a beautiful tie for a favor. Jane has never seen so many lovely new evening dresses as worn by the girls at the dance.

We want to extend our Christmas greetings to the Bulloch County boys at Fort Stewart. Jane wishes that some of our dashing boys down there would put her wise to the interesting yarns that must be happening all the time down there, and let her use them in this column. Just address your choice letters to "Jane," care of the Bulloch Herald.

As ever, JANE.

Expressing Sincere Good Wishes

OUT OF THE PAST

The Christmas and New Year Season brings to mind the gratitude that is in our hearts for all the blessings that have come our way. In the past the friends of this organization have made possible progress and a certain amount of prosperity. Through these friendships life has been an enjoyable experience, one in which we have the confidence and esteem of the people whom we serve. All we ask is the pleasure of a continuance of these fine relationships—so that we may look with a genuine enthusiasm toward the future.

NO!

Pipe Lines WON'T Give You Cheaper Gasoline!

In an effort to secure your influence and the favorable action of the Legislature the gasoline pipe line companies would have you believe that pipe lines will bring you cheaper gasoline. To create this impression, they have resorted to hints, hearsay and rumors. But, the fact remains that neither the gasoline pipe line people nor their owners, the oil companies have ever given you ONE DEFINITE PROMISE of cheaper gasoline prices as a result of the proposed gasoline pipe line.

They haven't made any such promise because they CAN'T make any such promise. . . because they DON'T INTEND to let you, the buying public, share in any savings they might secure. The oil companies are vitally interested in pipe lines because THEY, AND THEY ALONE, WILL REAP THE PROFITS!

Do you think that these oil companies would spend a tremendous sum of money to reduce the cost of transportation, just to pass this saving on to you?

Here are the Facts:

Gasoline pipe line companies do not deal with the general public, they deal only with their owners—the oil companies—only, and hence have nothing to say or do about what the public shall pay for that gasoline.

Whether the gasoline you buy is transported by water, rail, truck, or pipe line, it is the oil companies, NOT the pipe line companies that set the retail price . . . and here's what the oil companies say about savings in transportation costs. . .

In a hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission the General Traffic Manager of Standard Oil testified as follows:

"What we save in transportation . . . I do not mind telling you . . . we put it in our pockets; we do not pass it on to the consumer."

Similar statements have been made, time and time again, by officials of other oil companies. These oil company spokesmen have stated, in no uncertain terms, that if savings are made by the use of pipe lines, those savings will go NOT TO THE PUBLIC . . . oh, no, for the oil companies aren't STUPID. . . but will go to those oil company owners of the pipe lines as ADDED PROFITS!

Not only this, but countless actual examples show that retail gasoline prices are mainly determined by two factors: (1) Independent competition, and (2) cost of gasoline at the refinery plus rail rate to destination. This has held true of the gasoline you bought in 1925, it is true of the gasoline you buy today, and it will be true of the gasoline you buy in 1945, pipe line or no pipe line!

Notwithstanding the fact that gasoline consumed in Savannah largely moves into that port by water (the cheapest of all forms of transportation) nevertheless gasoline ordinarily sells at a higher price in Savannah than it does in Atlanta.

Why is this true if the oil companies give the public the benefit of transportation savings? Even in Port St. Joe, Florida, the port now being used by the Southeastern Pipe Line, the price of gasoline is higher there than in Bainbridge or Macon.

What about Your Taxes?

Pipe line advertising talks about the motor fuel tax. The truth is, that tax is your money, not paid by either the railroads or the gasoline interests. More than that, last year the State of Georgia paid the gasoline people almost a quarter of a million dollars of your tax money for accounting for those taxes which they collected from you in retail gasoline sales!

Last year the railroads in Georgia for each of their 5,797 miles paid an average of $457.00 per mile in state, county, municipal and school taxes. This amounted to $2,662,321.97. If gasoline pipe lines become a reality, it is liberally estimated that the proposed Southeastern Pipe Line will pay for the approximately 350 miles it will operate in Georgia, only $97.00 per mile in yearly taxes for the same purpose, or an estimated $34,000 only. If that company and other pipe line companies are permitted to condemn YOUR property as well as property belonging to the state for their lines, the income and value of railroads in Georgia will decline so drastically that they can no longer pay the millions of dollars in taxes that now help support your state, county and local governments. When this happens, the taxes paid by the pipe lines will be but a drop in the bucket compared with the taxes which the railroads now pay, but which they will no longer be able to pay.

You'll Pay the Difference!

Who will pay the difference to make up the loss in your taxes? YOU will, if you pay taxes at all!

Besides the serious injury to the railroads and the loss of thousands of jobs by railway employees, besides disastrous financial losses to the port cities of Savannah and Brunswick in depriving them of practically all of their gasoline tanker ship-ments, besides the endangering of the $540,000 annual rental of the state-owned W & A Railroad and the tremendous devaluation of this $18,000,000 property, besides the loss to your state in taxes, purchases, and payrolls . . . remember that you, as an individual citizen and taxpayer would gain absolutely nothing!

The facts are unavoidable . . . their records prove that expecting lowered gasoline prices from gasoline pipe lines and their oil company owners is like reaching for the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow—it makes a mighty pretty picture, but you never get your hands on it!

This is your fight, so be sure your members of the Legislature know how you feel!

BULLOCH HERALD DOES IT AGAIN!

This week the Herald does it again.

For the past three years the Herald has printed its annual Christmas greeting issue on colored paper. This year, in giving our subscribers something entirely different from anything they have ever had, we printed our Christmas issue in green ink on white paper, in keeping with the holiday spirit.

The art work for the front page was done by one of the nation's leading artists. The merchants and business men of Statesboro are wishing for all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. You will find their greetings in this issue.

Though the paper is dated December 26, we are putting it in the mails Monday, December 23, in order that our readers may have it in their homes before Christmas. The editors and publishers hope that you like this issue of the Herald. As we put it in the last office, we are wishing you and yours the merriest of Merry Christmas and the happiest of Happy New Years.

ROTARIANS PLAY SANTA CLAUS TO THE UNDERPRIVILEGED

Monday afternoon and night members of the Statesboro Rotary Club played Santa Claus to the underprivileged children of Statesboro.

The entire membership, working with the board of directors, and Everett Williams, president, distributed toys and Christmas baskets to the children of needy families in this city. Toys from the homes of the Rotarians were given to Allen Lanier who repaired and renewed them for the children.

This is an annual event for the Rotarians and has won them many friends in the city.

ATTENTION FARMERS!

The closing date for farmers signing applications for 1940 party payments is December 31. Thomas R. Breedlove, acting administrative officer of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration has announced that it is important for farmers to go to their county office immediately. Breedlove said, "Those who do not sign the applications by the last day of the year will stand a chance to lose the payments due them."

FARMERS ASKED TO LIST FARMS

Farmers in Bulloch county who have farms they wish to sell have an excellent opportunity with the farm owners in the area covered by Camp Stewart in Liberty, Bryan and Evans counties having to move at an early date.

It is understood that the land owners in that area are expected to be out by March 15. They are now looking for good farm lands to purchase.

Arrangements are being made to list farms in Bulloch county with the county agent's office so that these farmers may know what there is for sale in this county.

Farmers who wish to sell farms are requested to write a description of their lands, including the cultivated area, tobacco and cotton allotments, woodland, etc., together with the price wanted for it, and give it to the county agent. He will then send a copy of the description of the property to the county agent of Liberty county so that those interested may contact the land owners in this county.

Land owners wishing to take advantage of this opportunity are urged to list their property with the county agent as soon as possible.

HOME AGENT GIVES TIPS ON USES OF APPLES

Three different types of apples come to market each winter, says County Home Demonstration Agent Miss Irma Speers. Some varieties of apples are best for eating fresh; some are best cooked; others are equally good fresh or cooked.

"Of the cooking apples, those that hold their shape when they are cooked until soft are the best apples for baking. But for apple sauce and apple pie, it is more important that an apple cook tender quickly."

Exceeding Speed Limit Tops Death Cause List

Exceeding the speed limit was again the greatest single cause of accidental death and injury on highways last year, according to "Smash Hits," a booklet just published by The Travelers Insurance Company.

Pointing out that motorists exceeding the legal speed limit caused one death out of every three and that speed "too great for existing conditions" caused nine out of every ten deaths, the booklet asserts that "until drivers learn what speed limits mean, we must expect to count the death toll annually in the thousands and thousands."

More than 30 per cent of all highway deaths in 1939 were the result of excessive speed. About 15 per cent were caused by reckless driving and another 15 per cent were due to running on the wrong side of the road. In 1939, 15,141 persons were killed on highways.

Check up on your printing. The first of the month is near. Read the HERALD for the first complete news of the county.

AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR

Brooklet News
By MRS. JOHN A. ROBERTSON

Mrs. J. F. Smith of Port of and Mrs. J. H. Hinton entertained Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hinton with a linen shower in honor of Miss Mary Cromley whose marriage to Mr. Jefferson of Sylvester will be solemnized during the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Hinton directed the guests and introduced them to the receiving line composed of Mrs. Parrish, Mrs. Cromley, Mrs. W. C. Cromley, and Miss Dorothy Cromley.

The hostess in the dining room was Mrs. J. W. Robertson, Sr. and dainty refreshments, arranged by Mrs. T. R. Brown, Jr., and Mrs. J. H. Griffith, were served by Miss Joyce Parrish of Port of, Miss Shirley Starnes of Savannah, Miss Elise Williams, Miss Emily Cromley, and Miss Margaret Shearouse.

In the gift room the hostess was Mrs. J. N. Shearouse. The bride's register was in charge of Miss Martha Robertson.

Eighty-five guests called during the hour of 3:30 to 6:00.

Wednesday night the girls of the home economics department, directed by Mrs. J. H. Hinton, entertained a large group of friends in the gymnasium with a Christmas party. Indoor games were played and dainty refreshments were served.

LANIER-TUTEN

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lanier announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathleen, to Grover Tuten of Savannah. The bride is a graduate of the Brooklet High School. For several months she has been in Savannah where she has a position. The marriage of Miss Lanier and Mr. Tuten will take place December 24.

Friday morning at 9 o'clock Miss Ethel McCormick presented in the high school auditorium a Christmas play, "Why the Chimes Rang," by the boys and girls of her seventh grade.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Daves entertained a Christmas dinner. Those retained at their home Sunday present were Mr. and Mrs. James Bland and Laval Bland of Savannah, Mrs. Ella Bland, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Alderman, Mr. and Mrs. Daves, and Miss Lavonia Daves. Miss Margaret Shearouse and Miss Mattie Lu Olliff of G. S. C.

At the very height of the celebration with the music raging in thunderous tones, the doors opened, and in rushed a band of masqueraders waving banners, blowing horns and scattering confetti.

The orchestra started playing—"My Wife's Gone to the Country, Hurray!"

That was too much! The masqueraders pulled the masks from their faces and the startled guests beheld their own wives.

Before they knew it each one had a partner and was dancing merrily, regardless of entangled streamers and confetti, regardless of the unexpected interruption, regardless of everything, only conscious of the New Year's Spirit.

BAYBERRY CANDLES For Christmas

This young lady is not going to use her spirit of berries for decoration. She is doing what hundreds of housewives around the East coast are doing during the Christmas season—preparing to make bayberry candles. The berries are boiled for their wax, which is purified and made into the candles that give out the distinctive aroma when burned.

The guests were first served a turkey dinner, and afterwards High Five, Bingo, and other games enlisted their interest. The grand high for bingo, an electric lamp, went to Mrs. Grady K. Johnston. Many other amusing prizes were given at bingo. Mrs. Sidney Smith with ladies high at High Five won a Chase vase. Mrs. high a Chase vase. Cliff Bradley with men's high, won a cigarette case. Floating prize, a hurricane lamp, went to Bill Roosen, and Mrs. Cliff Bradley, winning cut, was given a bon bon dish.

The evening concluded with an old time spelling bee with names selected from an old Blue-Book-speller. Mr. Braswell in scholarly cap and gown, emulating Mr. Kaysar, evoked much merriment, as he labored with words of innumerable syllables. In these mental gymnastics Grady Attenberg proved his superiority among the men and Mrs. Z. Whitehurst outshined the other women present. Their prizes were baskets of Christmas fruits and candies.

Guests were invited for twenty tables. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Manley and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shearouse of Savannah.

One of the coming 365 days of the New Year be "Happy Days" for you and yours.

Christmas Carol
By Henry W. Longfellow

I hear along our street
Past the midnight throng;
Hark! They play so sweet,
On their harp, Christmas songs!
Let us by the fire
Ever higher
Sing them till the night expire!

In December ring
Every day the chimes;
Loud the gleemen sing
In the streets their merry rhymes.
Let us by the fire
Ever higher
Sing them till the night expire!

Shepherds at the manger,
Where the Babe was born,
Sing with merry change
Christmas carols until morn.
Let us by the fire
Ever higher
Sing them till the night expire!

These good people sang
Songs devout and sweet;
While the rosters rang,
There they stood with freezing feet.
Let us by the fire
Ever higher
Sing them till the night expire!

Who by the fireside stands,
Stamps his feet and sings:
But he who slumbers in his bed,
Not so gay a carol brings.
Let us by the fire
Ever higher
Sing them till the night expire!

Bethlehem Unchanged
In Twenty Centuries
Bethlehem, "royal David's city," is still a city set on a hill. It is about six miles from Jerusalem.

It is a city of flat-roof homes which look cozy enough, and its narrow streets have an air of coziness.

More Christians live in Bethlehem than in any other town in Palestine. On its hillside you may still see shepherds with their flocks, while blinking overhead are the everlasting stars.

MERELY A STARTER

With young folks the mistletoe plays havoc. Can you doubt it? For kissing, started by its aid, Soon gets along without it.

WALLET FOUND; LOST FIVE MONTHS
"Seek and ye shall find" is advice that Mr. Delmar Brown of Cartersville will vouch for quite emphatically. Mr. Brown sought for his wallet for five months after dropping it into a lake. Last week he found it washed ashore on the bank. The young sportsman remarked that contents of the purse—two dollars, social security card and other valuables, were in amazingly good shape when found.

MRS. J. G. WATSON
HOSTESS TO MATRONS CLUB
A motif of blue and silver and lovely white camellias were the decoration in Mrs. J. G. Watson's home as she entertained the Matrons Club at her home Thursday afternoon.
In a clever contest, Mrs. D. B. Turner received the high prize, Christmas candles with holders. A similar prize went to Mrs. S. W. Lewis for low.
The hostess served a salad course, roasted nuts and coffee.
The Matrons present were: Mrs. S. W. Lewis, Mrs. D. B. Turner, Mrs. B. H. Ramsey, Mrs. J. E. Donohoe, Mrs. M. S. Pittman, Mrs. Lowell Mallard, Mrs. J. L. Matthews, Mrs. Homer Simmons, Mrs. Jim Brannan and Mrs. Hinton Remington.

MR. AND MRS. BARNES
ENTERTAIN AT SUPPER
In the whirl of pre-Yuletide parties, the supper party given by the Emmitt Barnes at their home on Savannah Avenue was a delightful affair.
The table reflected the Christmas season with an exquisite centerpiece of silver and silver foliage. A three course supper was served, after which the guests played bridge.

THREE O'CLOCKS WITH LAVINIA FLOYD
Myriads of blue lights, snow scenes on mantels and St. Nicholas and his reindeer, cavorting across snowy roads to red topped chimneys on the dining room table delightfully accented the Christmas season as Mrs. Lavinia Floyd entertained her club the Three O'Clocks Tuesday afternoon at her home on North Main street.
Mrs. H. D. Everett, a recent bride, and Miss Lillian Hogarth whose marriage to William Everett takes place on Christmas Day received dainty sachets as special gifts from the hostess.

Miss Mary Matthews also received sachets for high score at bridge. For second high, Mrs. Lillian Ramsey was awarded a blue glass bon bon dish. Mrs. Bird Deane, winning out, received a pair of honey comb, candles.
The tables were centered with red star candles and the guests were served cranberry salad, turkey sandwiches, olives, nut bread with cream cheese and coffee. There were guests for five tables.

MRS. GRADY ATTAWAY
HOSTESS TO DOUBLE DECK CLUB
Holly and poinsettias adorned the rooms when members of the Double Deck Bridge Club met with Mrs. Grady Attaway at her home on Donaldson street.

A vanity dresser set went to Mrs. Emmitt Atkins for high score and Mrs. Cecil Kennedy won a bath towel for cut.

A. L. A. MET TUESDAY WITH MRS. GRADY K. JOHNSON
Members of the Dexter-Allen unit No. 30 of the American Legion Auxiliary met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Grady K. Johnson with Mrs. C. E. Layton as co-hostess.

During the business session, Mrs. J. F. Darley, rehabilitation chairman, presented names of veterans' families who will receive Christmas boxes from the Auxiliary. Mrs. Homer Parker, who leaves early in the new year to make her home in Atlanta, was presented a lovely crystal bud vase by the President, Mrs. Ernest Brannen, in behalf of the Unit in recognition of her successful work as membership chairman. The membership of the unit now is 46, which exceeds the quota set by the State Department.

Mrs. J. F. Darley, in charge of the program, presented Virginia Rushing who gave a Christmas reading, and Dorothy Remington who gave two saxophone solos.
The hostess served chicken salad sandwiches and hot tea.
The January meeting will be held on the fourth Tuesday at the home of Mrs. C. B. McAllister.

MRS. BOB POUND
ENTERTAINS SATELLITES
On Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Bob Pound entertained the Satellites and an extra table at her home on Savannah Avenue. Holly and Christmas berries along with her lighted Christmas tree decorated the rooms where the guests played bridge.

Miss Lillian Hogarth whose marriage takes place on Christmas Day received a special gift from her hostess a dainty handkerchief. For high score, Mrs. O. F. Whitman received a box of novelty soap golf balls. A box of French soap went to Mrs. Wendell Burke for low. Mrs. Gordon Franklin was given a Revlon set for floating prize, and Mrs. Robert Donaldson won out, a potted violet.

Others playing were: Mrs. John Duncan, Mrs. Bird Daniel, Mrs. Hollis Cannon, Mrs. Bunney Cannon, Miss Brooks Grimes, Miss Dorothy Brannen, and Miss Meg Gunter.
Mrs. Pound served a salad course and hot tea.

GEORGIA WORKERS ARE WARNED BY COMMISSIONER

All Georgians seeking work today were advised by the Georgia State Employment Service, a division of the State Department of Labor, to contact their nearest public employment office before leaving their homes in the hope of obtaining a job elsewhere.

Work opportunities throughout the state and nation, officials said, are listed with the public employment offices and both skilled and unskilled workers should register with the office nearest their home to make sure they will be considered for jobs as they open. The services and facilities of the offices are free to both workers and employers.

Farmers who have laid by their crops were particularly cautioned to stay at home. There are many farmers reported in the migratory group and the men, it is said, spend their time wandering from one camp to another hoping to be lucky in finding a job.

Workers who register with the nearest employment office, officials stated, have an opportunity of being considered for work wherever it is available. If no jobs are open locally, a registrant, they pointed out, may be referred to a job elsewhere through the clearance system employed by public employment agencies.

The first approach to a job, officials stated, is through the employment service and while registration within itself is not the promise of a job, it may save the worker costly and futile wandering from place to place in search of a job.

ROTARIANS FLUNK SPELLING BEE
Culbourn Rotarians include teachers, doctors and newspaper editors, but they can't spell. This was the conclusion drawn from a "spelling" quiz taken from the old Blue Book Spelling, an ad given at a recent luncheon.

The group, did all right at the outset, but "hemorrhoid" and "diaphragm" were too much. Only one genius, Wilbur Hall, remained standing. An ABC nursery book went to the poorest speller.

A Merry, Merry Christmas. Just the same old wish that we have been serving you.

Decorations Idea Is Old.
Many more stories are told about the Christmas tree. The idea of decorating trees for festivals is very old, going back to the Egyptian pharaohs, whose people dressed their homes with palm leaves in mid-winter.

Another story is about Winifred, an English crusader who happened upon a group of Teutons worshipping a mighty oak in honor of Thor, their thunder god. Winifred stopped them from sacrificing a young boy to appease Thor's "anger," then with his great sword felled the oak with one stroke. In its place there suddenly appeared a young fir with a star twinkling on its top branch.

"Here," said the Christian knight, "is the living tree. This shall be the sign of your new worship. Carry this fir tree into your home and worship it there."

Origin of Tree.
Some historians say the Christmas tree originated in Alsace in 1605 when the people brought fir trees to their homes and decorated them with paper roses, apples and wafers.

America's first Christmas tree was set up in Wooster, Ohio, in 1843, by August Ingard, a German immigrant. The first lighted tree in a church was at a Cleveland Lutheran church in 1848.

Christmas Decorations
Have Deep Meaning
Not many, probably, know of the deeper meaning associated with the three plants we ordinarily use for Christmas decorations, an authority writes. The holly has prickles and red berries. By the prickles we confess the bitter life of Jesus on earth. His watchings, His fastings, His weariness, His crown of thorns. By the berries we confess that He shed His blood for sinners.

The yew has little outside bark, but only a small ring, to teach us not to make a great outside show of religion. It is a lasting timber, suggesting the soundness of a Christian; it has many branches, meaning plentifulness in good works; and it is always green and prospering, even as the Christian should always grow and thrive in grace.

The laurel has the significance of victory. Jesus came into the world to loose the bonds of sin and to ascend up into Heaven, leading captivity captive.

When Yule Comes to France.
A French Christmas is a children's Christmas. The French Santa, "Pere Noel," comes on Christmas eve with gifts to put into empty shoes. In southern France the burning of the Yule log is a ceremony when wine is poured over it as it blazes in the hearth.

Many Christmases
Christmas is located in Florida, Kentucky, Maine and Arizona. All are small towns. But on December 25 it is Christmas everywhere.

SOCIETY

FAMILY KILLS, DRESSES

HOG IN 51 MINUTES

When it comes to slaughtering and "dressing down" hogs in a hurry, the family of Sims Dobbs, colored, can't be beat. The hog slaughtering father and five sons recently called at Ed Harper's home, slaughtered a 400-pound O. I. C. while it to their abattoir, cleaned it, dressed and returned it a mile away in 51 minutes. The family set a record last week by serving 15 customers in one day.

SETTIMING TATTER CEMENTS TO BUCKET

A local sweet potato has evidenced a deep sentimental affection for the "ole onion bucket."

According to W. J. Tarleton, of Newton, owner of the "bucket" in the rusted iron handle of the pail in such a way that it seems to have been welded there. It attached itself to the handle by two bolts which formerly held the bucket together.

DODGE COURT SWAPS CHAIRS FOR MODERN FEWS

Dodge county court spectators no longer have to sit on cane bottom chairs. Attractive up-to-date pews, which add much to the dignity of the room, have been installed. The new pews were installed at a recent session of the superior court.

New Year's Day Saw History Made

New Year's day may not seem very momentous to us, but in the past it has been history made. It was the day of the first American flag by George Washington, and the emancipation of negro slaves.

Following is a list of important events that took place on New Year's day:

- January 1
- 58 B. C. The era of the Caesars began.
- 1349 A. D. Edward III, king of England, defeated the French before Calais with great slaughter.
- 1735 Paul Revere born.
- 1757 Calcutta, India, captured by the British.
- 1776 First Union flag of 13 stripes unfurled by George Washington.
- 1792 Kentucky entered the Union.
- 1801 Union of Ireland with Britain.
- 1814 American dragons attacked the British who had seized Buffalo, N. Y.
- 1815 Gen. Jackson repelled British when they attacked New Orleans.
- 1855 Great Britain acknowledged independence of South American republics.
- 1863 Emancipation of Negro slaves went into effect by proclamation of President Abraham Lincoln.
- 1907 Pure food law put into effect.
- 1913 Parcel post system inaugurated.
- 1919 New Year's day declared a legal holiday throughout the country except in Massachusetts and Washington, D. C.

Old New Year Customs

Survive in Scotland

In Scotland, New Year's day is said to transcend Christmas as the most important festival of the year. Many old customs still are preserved and widely followed. "First footing" is a midnight custom of New Year's eve. The person who first, after the stroke of the new year, sets foot inside the house of a friend, remains the guest throughout the day and is a privileged friend throughout the year.

In this merry season there's a little wish we would like to add: May this be the happiest Christmas you ever had.

To One and All, A happy Christmas. This is an old wish but sincere from the entire force.

Our Letter to Santa Claus!

Sometime we just know you won't overlook our friends, the people of this community. They've been mighty good, every one of them, and they deserve the best you've got. We enjoy every one of the 365 days in the year among them; that's why we are sure that you'll manage to squeeze in just one day. And you'll leave happier because you'll see that here, indeed, among these fine people, is the true spirit of Christmas.

Ramblings... at Christmas time

... Your thoughtfulness during the past year... the many friendly associations... the splendid patronage that has been ours... the courtesies and favors that have been extended us... the spirit of co-operation on the part of the citizens of this fine community... their loyalty and belief in progress... all in all... we find many things that make us happy that this is our home... may we wish you all that's fine in appreciation of these delightful memories.

Christmas Season Celebrated Before Christ Was Born

Strange as it seems, the Christmas season was celebrated long before Christ was born. Of course, it wasn't called Christmas then, but many religious and pagan ceremonies were held during the Christmas period.

This period is celebrated by the Jews as the Festival of Lights or Dedication. According to Jewish history, a large force of Maccabees defeated an army of Syrians in 165 B. C. The victors began the work of purifying the desolate Jerusalem, completing their task on December 25. The Jews have celebrated the 23 days previous to December 25 ever since that time.

The proximity of Christmas to the winter solstice caused many pagan ceremonies to be held during that period. In Scandinavia, for example, great fires were kindled in the middle of December to drive the Frost King.

Centuries before this, the ancient Druids of England observed this season in their rudest temples. Torches lit and strange ceremonies were performed, dealing with the cutting of the mistletoe.

Several accepted Christmas customs of today originated with the old Roman celebration of Saturnalia. The higher class of free Romans exchanged presents with their friends. Inside houses, candles were lit and the rooms and halls adorned with laurel and green trees.

These festivals in honor of the god Saturnus were started before the earliest recorded history of that great empire. The pagans celebrated from December 17 to 24 in honor of their sun god. Among the slaves and lower classes, the celebration was transformed into unrestrained orgies.

Even the ancient Egyptians celebrated the winter festival. Near the end of December they rejoiced over the birth of Horus, son of the god Isis.

The last religious celebration to be held on Christmas day appeared in the middle of the Fourth century, A. D. At that time various dates assigned to the birth of Christ were examined; and the Catholic church in Rome proclaimed December 25 to be Christmas.

It's Easy to Select A Christmas Tree That Holds Needles

IF YOUR Christmas tree shed its needles early last winter, you probably had the wrong kind of tree. All trees will drop their leaves after they are cut and stored in a warm room, but some kinds hold their leaves far longer than others. Trees used most commonly on Christmas are the spruces, fir, hemlock, pine and redcedars.

Spruces are the least desirable of all evergreens because they are the first to shed their needles. A spruce can be identified by grasping a branch tightly, as its sharp point will prick your hand.

The ideal Christmas tree is the fir. It resembles the spruce except that its needles are not sharp. The needles stay on the tree for a long time, and become golden brown before they finally drop. Needles of a Douglas fir are soft and so to the touch. This popular tree can be recognized by examining the cones which have small appendages on each side.

Hemlocks tend to shed their foliage early when kept indoors at a warm temperature. The distinguishing feature of this tree is the two white lines on the lower side of each of its needle-like narrow leaves.

Pines have never been very popular as Christmas trees, in spite of the fact they do not shed their needles early. This is probably due to their unsymmetrical appearance, which does not closely resemble the conventional Christmas tree. Their longer needles are associated in clusters of three or five.

Redcedars are occasionally used as Christmas trees in the mountains where they grow wild. The foliage is tiny and scalelike, and is prickly to the touch. It grows berries instead of cones.

No matter what kind of Christmas tree you select, it will hold its needles longer if it is standing in water. Place a little water in the base of your Christmas tree stand, and you will be bothered less with falling needles than you were last year.

Basket of Preserves

Makes Welcome Gift

A gift that anyone will appreciate is a basket of your own preserves. Take a half dozen or so of your prettiest and most delicious ones, tie gay bows of red ribbon around the tops, and put them in a wicker container. Toss in another bow on the handle and insert a card.

Good Present

CATTLE TO HAVE PLENTY LESPEDeza IN FALL OF 1941

The cattle in Bulloch county will have ample lespedeza to graze in the fall of 1941. If the interest shown at the United Georgia Farmers meeting Friday is any indication as to what will be planted.

D. C. Banks outlined why he turned to livestock to save his farm and how he saved 100 acres lespedeza on small grain last spring and stated that he was planting about 6.0 acres more this spring. Mr. Banks recommended that some form of phosphate be used just prior to seeding the lespedeza.

Benny Barnes stated that his some 40 acres paid well enough that he planned to double his acreage for 1941.

J. B. Fields pointed out that cattle would graze lespedeza in preference to green corn when both were planted in the same field.

Fertilizer pays on a pasture, according to P. F. Groover, who put a ton of commercial fertilizer on some Bermuda and some Carpet grass planted in a mixture with lespedeza. Mr. Groover thought this ton of fertilizer was worth as much as any he had used on his crops.
